

March 29, 30 Ms. Midori Yamada, Ikenobo Sokatoku Professor, held an event introducing traditional Japanese culture

On March 29th (Fri) and 30th (Sat) the Embassy of Japan in Armenia organized tea ceremony, sumie (Japanese Ink painting) and ikebana demonstration and master-class by Ms. Midori Yamada, Ikenobo Sokatoku Professor and master of Sumi-e and Tea ceremony, and lecturer, Ms. Galina Davidenko.

In collaboration with “Hikari” Armenian-Japanese Educational and Cultural Center, a tea ceremony, sumie and ikebana demonstration and master-class were held at Yerevan State Academy of Fine Arts and at “Yerevan My Love” foundation, and in Ejmiatsin a sumie demonstration and master-class took place at Yeghishe Tadevosyan School of Fine Arts.

On March 30th, the spouse of the RA President, Mrs. Nouneh Sarkissian also visited the event. During both days, many people participated, and this event became a great opportunity for them to deepen the interest in Japanese culture.

Sumie and ikebana demonstration and master-class at Yerevan State Academy of Fine Arts

Sumie demonstration and master-class at Yeghishe Tadevosyan School of Fine Arts

Opening ceremony of tea ceremony and sumie demonstration at “Yerevan My Love” foundation

Sumie demonstration and master-class at “Yerevan My Love” foundation

Tea ceremony demonstration and master-class at “Yerevan My Love” foundation