

The screening event of the documentary film about Ms. Diana Apcar “The Stateless Diplomat”

On July 6, Ambassador Yamada took part in the screening event of the documentary film about Ms. Diana Apcar “The Stateless Diplomat”, the Honorary Consul of the First Republic of Armenia who is said to be the first female diplomat in the World at American University of Armenia.

During the event, apart from watching the film, which was the first screening in Armenia, Ms. Mimi Malayan, the great-granddaughter of Ms. Diana Apcar, who is the co-producer of the film, made a presentation about the achievements of Ms. Apcar.

Many guests participated in the event, including the people involved in Japan-Armenia relations, who are interested in Apcar’s activities.

Greeting speech by Ambassador Yamada

Greeting speech by Ms. Malayan

Presentation by Ms. Mesropanyan, research student of Tohoku University

Ms. Malayan and Ms. Mesropanyan answering questions

Photo with Ms. Hovhannisyan, the organizer of the event and Senior Lecturer at RAU, Ms. Malayan and Ms. Mesropanyan