

On February 28 and 29, Ms. Midori Yamada, Ikenobo Sokatoku Professor, Held an Event Introducing Traditional Japanese Culture

On 28th (Fri) and 29th (Sat) of February, the Embassy of Japan in Armenia organized tea ceremony and sumi-e (Japanese ink painting) demonstrations and master-classes by Ikenobo Sokatoku professor, Omotesenke tea master, and sumi-e lecturer Ms. Midori Yamada, and lecturer Ms. Galina Davidenko (both of them reside in Moscow).

The events were held at Yerevan State Academy of Fine Arts and at “Yerevan My Love” Foundation in Yerevan and at the Ruben Sevak Museum in Mother See of Holy Etchmiadzin, in collaboration with “Hikari” Armenian-Japanese Educational and Cultural Center, and Armenian-Japanese Center of Educational and Cultural Exchange “Iroha”.

Many participants, including children and students studying arts gathered, which became a wonderful opportunity to experience traditional Japanese culture.

Sumie demonstration and master-class at Yerevan State Academy of Fine Arts

Opening ceremony at “Yerevan My Love” foundation

Sumie demonstration and master-class at “Yerevan My Love” foundation

Tea ceremony demonstration and master-class at “Yerevan My Love” foundation

Opening ceremony at the Ruben Sevak Museum in Mother See of Holy Etchmiadzin

Tea ceremony demonstration and master-class at the Ruben Sevak Museum

Sumie demonstration and master-class at the Ruben Sevak Museum