

Nobuyuki Tsujii's Concert in Armenia

On September 6, the Japanese pianist Nobuyuki Tsujii's concert took place in Aram Khachaturian Concert Hall in Yerevan. Mr. Tsujii, who won the gold medal at 2009 Van Cliburn International Competition and continues to perform around the world, held the concert in Armenia for the first time. The concert was very successful with full enthusiastic audience, where three encore pieces were performed in response to the audience's unstoppable applause. After the concert, many people rushed to the backstage to convey their gratitude for his wonderful performance.

In front of the poster of Aram Khachaturian Concert Hall (from Nobuyuki Tsujii's official website)

Rehearsal at the Conservatory on September 5 (from Nobuyuki Tsujii's official website)

Audience talking to Mr. Tsujii after the concert (photo by Ambassador Yamada)

Ecstatic post on Instagram by the audience (from Nobuyuki Tsujii's official website)

From left to right: Ms. Hovhannisyian, General Manager of the Festival, Mr. Rostomyan, Festival President, Mr. Tsujii, Ambassador Yamada, Mr. Nakamura, Mr. Takemura