Completion Ceremony of “The Project for Establishing the Vocational Training Center for Income Generation in Gegharkunik Province”

On May 2nd 2024, the Completion Ceremony for “The Project for Establishing the Vocational Training Center for Income Generation in Gegharkunik Province” took place in Tsovagyugh community.

The ceremony was attended by Yutaka Aoki, Ambassador of Japan to Armenia, Mr. Bezeyan, Deputy Governor of Gegharkunik, Mr. Muradyan, Mayor of Sevan community, representatives of donor organizations which fund RDRC initiatives, and other people involved in the project as well as local residents.

In the result of this project a vocational training center was constructed in the village of Tsovagyugh in Gegharkunik region, by providing a complete set of vocational training equipment, in order to develop income generation and increasing capacities of local residents in agriculture, tourism and energy spheres.

The project was implemented with the aim of diversifying local industries and increasing the income of local residents. Approximately 450 residents will directly benefit from the implementation of this project annually.
