

Call for Applications: MIRAI Program

19th September 2025

The Government of Japan implements the MIRAI Program (MIRAI: Mutual-understanding, Intellectual Relations and Academic Exchange Initiative) with the aim of inviting promising young leaders of the future, providing opportunities for intellectual exchange with Japanese students and researchers of the same generation, and promoting a deeper understanding of Japan as well as fostering mutual understanding and friendship between Japan and other countries.

This year, the program will invite students (undergraduate, graduate) and young professionals from Central Asia and the Caucasus region, aged between 20 and 30, under the theme “Rule of Law (Visit to Japan)” . The application deadline is Wednesday, October 15, 2025. Please carefully read the guidelines before applying, and we strongly encourage you to submit your application.

Please note that depending on unforeseen circumstances, the program may be postponed, or its schedule and format may be subject to change.
